

Accident in Germany.

Thought this would interest you....This image is simply gut wrenching.

It's a picture of a horrible accident taken in Germany.

The picture may be hard to take for some of you.

If you look closely, you can see what appear to be some survivors of the accident still in the wreckage.

Although the picture is quite graphic, it makes you realize how quickly our loved ones can be taken from us.

Many stayed on the scene to help and even though they performed mouth to mouth on quite a few of them, none survived.

Bye for now

Jerry
