

The new Benz - Very different...really different!
...SCROLL DOWN...

This is the new Mercedes Benz SCL600.

This car is really different.

That's not what is different about it.

That either.

....and now for the 'really different' part:

Here is what is different.

No steering wheel, you drive it with a joystick. No pedals either.
Can you drive with a joystick?

Your kids and grandkids probably can.
The influence of video games in our lives has really arrived, wouldn't ya say?
